How to adapt it

1. Pick a job in your own town and interview someone who does it.
2. Turn the script into a 'skills you need' carousel.
3. Add a closing scene about how to learn more safely.

Fact check checklist

- Confirm details with a real worker, a trade association or an official labor page.
- Avoid salary and danger statistics unless sourced.
- Read the script out loud once. Cut anything that sounds like a guess stated as a fact.
